Engineers and Millmen

Charles A. Porter, of Salt Lake, has returned from an extended eastern visit.

Colin McIntosh, general manager of the Ohio Copper, was in New York last week.

D. P. Rohlfing, of Salt Lake, has returned from a visit to Seven Troughs district, Nevada.

Edward R. Zalinski, of Salt Lake, has returned from Ophir, Utah, where he has been on professional business.

Clarence Calhoun is superintending the installation of machinery at the Chief Consolidated mine, at Eureka, Utah.

D. C. Jackling and R. C. Gemmel left Salt Lake on the 5th inst. for the Ray Con. and Chino mines in Arizona.

Geo. E. Gunn of Salt Lake, of the Gunn-Thompson syndicate, recently made a trip to New York on mining business.

Jerry Rourke has been appointed superintendent of the Johnnie mine and mill at Johnnie, Nevada, vice Carl Anderson, resigned.

J. M. Howell, of Salt Lake, consulting engineer for the Baby McKee, in Big Cottonwood canyon, visited the company’s mine this week.

E. L. Godbe, of Salt Lake, manager of the Consolidated Floche, at Floche, Nevada, has returned home from a visit to the company’s property.

Grant Snyder, of Salt Lake, manager of the Cliff mine in Ophir district, Tooele county, Utah, recently made an inspection of this producing property.

H. F. Widdecome, of Salt Lake, who has charge of the development of the Argentic mine near Hailey, Idaho, is at the company’s property this week.

H. B. Pulifer, of Murray, Utah, with the A. S. & R. company, is taking a two weeks’ vacation during which time he will visit Park City and Bingham mines.

C. B. Lakenman, of Magill, Nevada, general manager for the Nevada Consolidated, and Pope Rentman, consulting engineer for the company, were in Salt Lake this week.

Pierrie Pugeot, of Salt Lake, manager for the Burro Mining company, was in Idaho last week, on business connected with the construction of a suspension bridge.

A press dispatch from the east states that D. C. Jackling of Salt Lake, has accepted the position of general manager of all of the Guggenheim mining and milling interests in the west, Alaska and Mexico.

Dr. J. E. Talmage, of Salt Lake, recently visited the Mountain Lake mine, near Brighton, Utah and also inspected the Snake Creek tunnel, the face of which at the present time is under Lake Mary and Lake Catherine, at a vertical depth of probably 4,200 feet.

W. W. Cannon, of Salt Lake has accepted a position as superintendent for the Amalgamated Nevada Mines company at Blackhorse, Nevada, of which A. G. Burritt, another Salt Lake, is general manager. Mr. Cannon is a graduate of the Utah State School of Mines, and for some time past has been on the staff of the Knight interests, of Provo, being recently employed at the Iron Blossom mine in Tintic district.